

HIAWATHA VALLEY'S LAST ANCHOR OUT IS NOW A Sail Away to Lake City & Crockpot Cook-off!

24-26 September 2010

As we all know, boating season is winding down way too fast and we'll be pulling our boats soon. So, plan to Sail Away to Lake City in your boat (OR CAR ... simply make a room reservation in Lake City or the surrounding area) the last weekend of September for a relaxing weekend on and near the water.

Kris Harmon has dock space reserved at the Lake City Marina and will be coordinating boat slips for our group. Please call Kris at 651-688-6464 or send her an e-mail at KLHarmon@comcast.net for your slip reservation. Please contact Kris by 10 September 2010.

Commander Oded Galilli and Hani Galilli are working on some fun activities for the group on Saturday. Check in with the boaters on the transient docks or look for the tents in the Lake City Public Park area (located just north of the marina) for fun and games and socializing.

A Crockpot Cook-off is planned for Saturday evening around 5:30 p.m., followed up with more socializing and, hopefully, a chance to watch one of Lake City's beautiful sunsets with your boating friends.

Sunday morning, 26 September will be a dockside breakfast, where attendees are invited to bring a contribution of their choice before everyone heads back to their home ports.

Schedule of Events

- Arrive in Lake City on Friday or Saturday.
- Games and socializing during the day.
- Crockpot Cook-off on Saturday at 5:30 p.m.
- Sunday morning – a “share what you’ve got” breakfast on the dock.
